BRAIN SURGERY

Wonderful Operation Performed by Dr. Kobayashi.

Little Ethel Austin Successfully Treated for Jacksonian Epilepsy.

The successful operation performed on the little 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Austin has opened the eyes of many people to the giant strides surgery has made in the last few years. In a chat with Mr. Austin, a reporter for this paper learned the following:

About two and a half years ago their little daughter, Ethel, received a severe blow on the head, and from that time has been subject to severe epileptic fits, affecting the whole of the left side of the body, and increasing in severity and number till last June, when they numbered as high as 20 per day.

In July of this year Mr. Austin took his little girl to Dr. S. Kobayashi, who found the cause of the trouble was centered in the brain and due to irritation in the arm center in the right side of the cerebral cortex. On the 14th of July Dr. Kobayashi performed an operation by cutting an opening about three inches by two in the skull, and after opening the dura mater, or thick membrane protecting it, removed a portion of the brain. The operation lasted one hour and a quarter and was eminently successful in every way.

The fits have entirely left the child and today she is running about as well and happy as any on the Islands.

For the "Benefit of Consumers."

We beg to announce that we are sole and exclusive agents for the Schlitz Beer, "which made Milwaukee Famous." Having no rival spite to gratify, we shall pursue the even tenor of our way and calmly await the onslaught of the "opposition," which chooses to advertise our beer, unsolicited by us, at $12 per barrel of 10 dozen quarts. Realizing that their carload will soon give out, we shall cheerfully reap the advantages accruing, but shall only bind ourselves to supply 6 dozen quarts to the barrel.

We are also in the wine business, and intend to keep up with the hearse. We can meet any cut made by disappointment or thrift.

Concerts Resumed.

The first Government Band concert since the vacation was given in the Executive grounds yesterday afternoon. Several new and popular airs, including "The Kentucky Babe" and "All Coons Look Alike to Me" were rendered, much to the enjoyment of the audience. Soldiers of the regular companies off guard were around the band stand and seemed in better spirits for the music. The two new melodies will be played tonight at the hotel concert.

BEST WAY.

There is a best-clothing store in town; you probably know which it is.

There are best clothes—we don't mean finest—you want your rough clothes right. That's what we mean by best. There's nothing better than right. Do you know which the best clothes are?

They have this label under the coat collar.

If you will come in and try on, we'll talk about it. The clothes will do most of the talking for us though.

Your money back if you want it. Safe buying; safe selling too.

Look through our furnishings when you are in; they get forgotten, some of 'em. Some get into the papers; some don't. Don't know which to mention or skip. It's a handy place; tell the Boys you want to see everything.
